

DIVA View Retirement Notice

Announcement for Product Retirement and End of Support for DIVA View

This notice serves as formal communication of Telestream's intent to end sales of DIVA View on December 31, 2022, and to discontinue support of DIVA View on March 31, 2025.

DIVA View became part of the Telestream portfolio through the Ecodigital acquisition in October 2020. DIVA View was originally developed by Oracle as DIVAdirector, as a tool to enable end users to search, browse, and interact with content managed by DIVA Core systems.

While DIVA View is being retired, Telestream offers alternative products for light asset management. To learn more about these products, please contact your Telestream sales manager.
